professional-grade skin care by The International Dermal Institute

professional-grade skin care since 1986

Dermalogica was founded in 1986 by skin therapist Jane Wurwand, who wanted to provide skin therapists at The International Dermal Institute with best-in-class skin care products.

At Dermalogica, we believe your best life is lived in your healthiest skin, which is why we focus on skin health before beauty. Our products are certified cruelty-free, gluten-free and vegan, and made locally in Los Angeles, CA with no artificial colors or fragrances.

the Dermalogica difference

Dermalogica offers professional-grade skin care education, products, and services to skin therapists and consumers alike. We are the dependable source of truth for all skin care needs. Our goal is to help you achieve your healthiest skin ever with innovative products and treatments. Within our industry, we are the expertise brand.

Gluten-free and formulated without artificial fragrances or colors.

Certified cruelty-free and vegan.

Professional-grade skin care by The International Dermal Institute. Professional recommendation advised.

We support professional-grade skillset training in local communities worldwide.

the dermalogica approach to skin care

Your skin is unique, so we designed our skin treatment systems to work with it—not the other way around. You can easily mix and match products to create a skin treatment plan that works for you.

Not sure where to start? Ask your Dermalogica Professional Skin Therapist for a free Face Mapping skin analysis. It's the ultimate way to diagnose your skin's needs and craft a personalized regimen.
